

Sydney Premier League Croquet – Tuesday 3 June

Croquet fans are in for a treat next Tuesday night at Cammeray Croquet Club.

The fourth week of the Sydney Premier League will see a clash between the two most recent winners of the Australian Women's Singles title. Alison Sharpe won the title in 2012, and Alix Verge won in 2013, retaining her title on 2014.

Both women are undefeated after the first three weeks of the Sydney Premier League, and the contest on Tuesday will be fiercely fought.

Alison (left) and Alix (right) hold the Australian Women's Singles Trophy aloft in 2012 and 2013 respectively.

Alan Walsh

Tuesday night will also see a continuation of a long-running rivalry between Cammeray members Alan Walsh and Mike Hughes. Alan and Mike have played a staggering 41 times on a head to head basis, with Alan coming out on top with 23 wins to Mike's 18. Alan has also beaten Mike the last three outings and it is nearly 12 months to the day that Mike last beat Alan. However, Mike is fresh off a good win last week against Rosie Landrebe in his first Premier league outing, so he will be full of confidence in closing that match count against Alan tonight. Neither player has been able to get a win against the other with a triple peel in all of those 41 games. Let's see if one of them can make it a special evening at Cammeray.

Mike Hughes

Rosie Landrebe

The third game on Tuesday night will see Rosie Landrebe (still smarting from her loss to Mike Hughes last week) up against rapid improver Ted Salter. Ted came within a whisker of defeating Alison Sharpe in the first week, while Rosie had a good win against Alan Walsh. They will both be keen to record a win to stay in the running for the winner's trophy.

Ted Salter

The games will start at 6 pm at Cammeray Croquet Club, located next to the tennis courts at the corner of Ernest Street and Park Avenue.